

FAR AWAY FROM HOME

*music: Hans Elmers
lyrics: Lucia Hebers*

Do you know why you are here
Or is your vision blurred by fear
Can it be there is a reason
Do you know why you are here

Are you sad or is it anger
Do you think I've got the answer Would you like to find some meaning and know the purpose of your life

Oh, you're so far away from home
I tell you there's a place where you belong
Just look into your heart and find a way to start to soften up and let your feelings grow

Are you tired of people trapped on Did you ever read a logion Would you like your world in peace hate to stop and fire to cease

Do you think that life is senseless Would you like to get some solace
Are you sure there's no one there Did you look up in the air

WALKING THE MOON

*music: Hans Elmers
lyrics: Lucia Hebers*

Look at me, well it's a pity yeah my heart is almost gone I can't look into the sunshine when the walls are up in stone

Nobody's like no one else and nobody's like me at all got to find a kind of peace got to fly before I fall

Well, I'm just walking the moon
And I know I will be home soon You see that I don't mind and all I will find is that here I'm just walking the moon

Don't you feel like you're dying when you ain't got nothing to share and don't you feel,
don't you feel like crying when sometimes it's more than you can bear

GO WITHOUT FEAR

*music: Hans Elmers

Sand storms, water dries
The earth is desolate
We fight these tides
The wind rotates
All things are out of place

Eat dust, drink drought
Our heart is in it now
The heat is cold
We trust in you to guide us to our home

Castle sand, stones unturned
Be brave, the storm still is here
Land we must cross
You give us faith
We now go without fear

A DOG WITH NO NAME

*music: Hans Elmers

I'm a dog with no name
I'm a snake without pain
all I have left is the blood in my veins

I put a gun to your head
I put a bullet in my head a hole so deep you cannot see the fear inside me

When the echoes are too loud and there's no sound although I shout I show my teeth to make you feel my anger is for real

In the dark night I am alone
Cold steel chills me to the bone But there's also comfort in its touch never liked this life that much

I'm a dog with no name
I'm a snake without pain
If you hurt me I will grin
Nobody loves me

AWAKENING

*music: Hans Elmers

Like a flower in spring
I open my eyes and see Finally I am awake
Finally I truly see and all senses come to life

I feel old and still a newborn son
They are waiting just for me
I am welcome
I am home and I feel I'm born again
