

DIFFERENT WORLDS

*music: Hans Elmers
lyrics: Lucia Hebers*

My thoughts are mine your tears are yours
I am doing just fine yet I am hurting too Yesterday I cried
tomorrow I'll laugh
Today I wonder why
The illusion of time

Different worlds, separate lives and yet we are one

I give what I have
there's always enough
I take my own hand
I am what I love My thoughts are still mine your tears will be yours Tomorrow we'll laugh
The illusion of time

TEARS

lyrics: Lucia Hebers*

I'm right in front of you
But you don't see me
I give you my biggest smile
You walk right through me

I whisper in your ear
You don't seem to hear
I really shout my heart out
The silence brings you tears

LOOKING FOR TRUTH

I was looking for the truth in stars and figures
I was searching for a way in signs and pictures I consulted the experts in books and records but I found a little bit of truth in you

Oh, dig a little deeper now
Are you sure you've got it right Look for answers to your questions but let your heart decide

I was looking for the truth in drugs and demons
I was searching for a way in your cathedrals I consulted the experts on science fiction and I found a little bit of truth in me

I was looking for truth in the words of masters
I was searching for a meaning in life's disasters
I consulted the angels on a god above
In the end, I found the truth in love

EVERY TIME

Every time you called for help
The angels were on their way Every time you asked for a sign A bird sang you my name
All those moments that you were so sad
I listened to your heart
All those moments that you felt alone
I held you in my arms

I'M COMING HOME

I'm coming home
I'm almost there Yearning for your touch to feel you near
I'm almost there
Don't wait much longer
I will soon be there

I'm coming home
Just a few miles further we will rock the night away See me coming honking on the driveway!

Whenever I think of you my heart starts beating fast Whenever I hold you in my arms
I want our love to last
