

DEALING WITH THE PAIN

music: Hans Elmers

lyrics: Hans Elmers

You'll never be the same
dealing with the pain
When tears, they fall like rain you're dealing with the pain

Hidden sides will run you over There seems no end to what you feel You like to end it, close the door But even that's no real deal when you feel - the pain
the pain

THERE'S NO LOVE

There's no love to be found in a man who's full of lies And the heart is loosing faith and the hope will be unbound When darkness comes around

There's a dreamer who dreams that somewhere there's a place where love can be found Where tunes all will be changed and the night turns into day changing all the sounds

There's a believer who believes someday there'll be a day he will open all the doors which are closed within his heart a little room of pain wants to settle all the scores

There are people who will fight for a better kind of man for a truth that will be real For an understanding mind you know I mean the kind that every-one can feel

JUST CAN'T CHOOSE

music: Hans Elmers

Just can't choose between them
Just cannot say a word Don't have anything to say That isn't already heard

There's no time to think it over There's no time to give it back I know my love ain't over
I don't wanna leave you sad

Tomorrow is still the day
All things must change
There are no more words to say those feelings seem so strange

No time to think it over
No way to change a thing
I couldn't do it otherwise
I'm flying on a wing
